

I LOVE
ALPACAS

(This is also kind
of about Harry Styles, but that's harder to explain.)

You don't have to go to South America to see them. Alpacas
live on farms right
here in the Lower Mainland.

They're
adorable,
right?

I can't really
explain why.

They're smaller and fluffier than llamas.
