

10 MINUTES

It all starts with
ten minutes, pen
and paper, and the human form.

Life drawing is
freeing.

It doesn't have to be perfect
because
our bodies
aren't perfect.

It doesn't have to look right.
It only has to
look how you
want it.

I don't have any
problem calling
myself a writer.
But I don't have the same confidence
to say I'm an artist.

I can draw. But I often don't. I haven't made the same
habits I've made
as a writer.
